ORANGE, N. J.

SANITARY AND PLUMBING CODE—AMENDMENT.

An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled "The sanitary and plumbing code of the board of health of the city of Orange," adopted December 1, 1900.

1. Section 94 of the ordinance to which this is an amendment is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 94. Every master and foreman plumber, before doing any plumbing work whatever within the limits of the city of Orange, shall appear in person at the office of the board of health and register his name and place of business with the secretary; and in case of change of address, again register as aforesaid; and shall also make and execute unto this board a bond in the sum of $500, with sufficient surety, conditioned for the faithful and proper performance, in accordance with the rules, regulations, and ordinances of this board, of all plumbing work, both inside and outside of buildings, done by him in said city, which said bond is to be approved by this board: Provided, however, That any master plumbers' association duly incorporated under the laws of this State may furnish a bond in the sum of $2,000, conditioned as aforesaid, for the faithful and proper performance, in accordance with the rules, regulations, and ordinances of this board, of all plumbing work, both inside and outside of buildings, done by any one of its members in this city, which bond, when approved by this board, will be accepted in lieu of the bonds hereinabove provided for as to all members of such association, and all bonds filed under this section shall expire on the 1st day of May next following the filing thereof, and shall be renewed annually on the 1st day of May in each year."

2. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed. [Ordinance, board of health, adopted June 5, 1911.]

SEATTLE, WASH.

SPITTING.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to expectorate upon the floor or in any other part of any street-railway car or cars in use by steam railroads or any other public conveyance in the city of Seattle, or upon the floor or other portions of any public building or building used for public assemblage, or upon any playground, parks, public places, or sidewalks: Provided, That the prohibition hereinabove contained shall not apply to those portions of the public streets of the city commonly and ordinarily used for team and vehicle traffic.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the chief of the police department and the commissioner of health of the city of Seattle to enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

SEC. 3. That any person found guilty of a violation of this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not exceeding the sum of $100, or imprisoned in the city jail for a term not exceeding 30 days, or may be both fined and imprisoned.

Whereas the protection of the public health demands that this ordinance become effective without delay:

Now, therefore, by reason of the foregoing facts, an emergency is hereby declared to exist in which it is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety that this ordinance become effective without delay.

SEC. 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval, if approved by the mayor; otherwise it shall take effect at the time it shall become a law under the provisions of the city charter. [Ordinance approved June 30, 1910.]
